DAYLIGHT BREAK AND ENTERS IN NORTH END OF ORILLIA

(ORILLIA, ON) –Orillia Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) want to make residents of the north end of the city, aware of a situation that has recently developed. During the daylight hours on weekdays, a few residents in the area of Fittons Road and North Street have had their residences and sheds broken into.

The break-ins seem to be occurring on weekdays and during the hours when people are generally at work or school.

The thieves are taking jewellery and/ or cash, generally things that are easy to carry.

Orillia OPP is actively investigating these occurrences and officers will be stepping up patrols in the north end of the City of Orillia.

Police are asking the public and especially those residents who are at home during the day to be aware and keep observation for any suspicious persons or activity and call 1-888-310-1122 or 911 if police are required immediately.

There are no suspects at this time.
